PROCEDURE

- The event began with an inspiring address by the club moderator Dr. Monika Uppal, who spoke about William Shakespeare and his works.
- Through a PPT presentation student of B.Ed. semester I Miss. Trisha Sarkar gave a brief introduction to Shakespeare's life and legacy, highlighting his contributions to English literature, including iconic plays such as Romeo and Juliet, Hamlet, and Macbeth.
- Students participated in various activities aimed at bringing Shakespeare's works to life. One of the main attractions was a dramatic performance of selected scenes from Shakespeare's plays as Julius Caesar and The Merchant of Venice.
- The role play & monologue competition was mesmerizing. Students showcased their acting talents with impressive portrayals, capturing the essence of Shakespearean drama. In the role play & monologue competition Mrs. Arpita Chakravorty won first prize whereas Second prize and third prize were won by Miss. Subhangi Ghosh Dutta and Miss. Jagriti.
- A debate competition was there between students of B.Ed. Semester I and B.Ed. semester III on the topic BOOK Vs E-BOOK. Miss. Tazeen and Miss. Aneeqa Manzar of semester III won the debate competition. Judges for the event were MR. Partha Banerjee from Srinath University, Jamshedpur and Mrs. Rekha Kumari Gope from Srinath College of Education, Jamshedpur.
- The Chairperson of the college Mr. B. Chandrashekhar gave a speech on emphasizing the importance of book reading in shaping minds and broadening perspectives. He also encouraged students to cultivate the habit of reading.
- The event concluded with words of appreciation by the college Principal, who lauded the efforts of Dr. Monika Uppal and Dr. Meenakshi Choudhary organizers of the world book day programme.
