PROCESS

Mr. Himanshu Seth began by stressing the importance of recognizing individual learning styles and tailoring teaching methods accordingly. He advocated for a positive and interactive classroom atmosphere where children are motivated to learn. The session included:

- Tips on using interactive activities, visual aids, and storytelling.
- Emphasis on active student participation through discussions and hands-on learning.
- Use of educational apps and online resources to complement traditional teaching methods.

A Q&A session followed, during which Mr. Seth addressed queries from the participants, deepening their understanding of effective teaching practices.

OUTCOME

The session successfully provided pupil teachers with actionable teaching strategies. Participants left with a refreshed perspective on engaging children in the learning process and were inspired to apply the shared techniques in real classrooms. The session was well-received and appreciated by all attendees.

CONCLUSION

The session proved to be both insightful and practical, offering significant guidance to aspiring educators. It contributed meaningfully to their professional development by enhancing their teaching effectiveness and confidence in dealing with diverse classroom situations.

CONTEXT

D.B.M.S. College of Education organized a talk session on Executive Communication to help students improve their communication skills. The session aimed to teach important strategies for clear and confident speaking, which is becoming more important in both professional and educational settings today. Mr. Sujay Jayant Karnad was invited as the speaker for the session.

OBJECTIVES

- To develop effective, assertive communication skills.
- To build confidence, clarity, and persuasive speaking abilities.
- To prepare educators for leadership and dynamic classroom management.

PROCESS

The talk session primarily aimed to equip future educators with practical communication techniques that combine clarity, confidence, and a persuasive speaking style. The speaker, Mr. Sujay Jayant Karnad, emphasized that the ability to express ideas clearly is not only essential in academic environments but also plays a crucial role in effective leadership and managing diverse classroom situations.

The program included a variety of interactive modules such as role-playing activities, group discussions, and live demonstrations. These sessions enabled participants to actively practice assertive communication, focusing on both verbal and non-verbal cues. “Our objective is to ensure that students are equipped with a strong set of communication tools to succeed in any professional setting,” Mr. Sujay noted. He added, “Communication serves as the bridge between ideas and action.” He also addressed common challenges like overcoming hesitation, speaking clearly under pressure, and practicing active listening—key elements in developing a confident and professional presence.

Participants appreciated the session's hands-on approach. One student shared, “The practical exercises made the concepts easy to grasp and apply. I now feel more confident in using assertive communication in both academic and future professional situations.”

OUTCOME

Students expressed increased confidence and readiness to communicate effectively in academic and professional settings. The session initiated

REPORT

Title of the Programme : A Session on Cyber Crime Awareness Program

Organizing Cell : IQAC of D.B.M.S. College of Education

Date : 12th February 2025

Venue : College Auditorium

CONTEXT

With the growing use of digital platforms, cybercrime has become a significant concern. To address this issue and promote cyber safety, D.B.M.S. College of Education organized a Cyber Crime Awareness Program on 12th February 2025 at 9:00 AM. The session was led by experts from Cyber Peace and the Cyber Cell, highlighting key aspects of cyber threats, cyber arrests, and preventive measures. Ms. Namita Prasad, representing Cyber Peace Corps, an NGO operating in Jharkhand emphasized the importance of cyber awareness and online safety.

ABOUT CYBER PEACE COPS

Cyber Peace Corps is an initiative by the Cyber Peace Foundation (CPF), which is a non-profit organization based in India. It aims to promote cybersecurity awareness, online safety, and responsible digital citizenship among individuals, especially the youth.

OBJECTIVES

- To educate students on the various forms of cybercrimes.
- To raise awareness about cyber hygiene and online safety.

- To provide preventive strategies and legal recourses in case of cyber threats.
- To encourage responsible behaviour during digital arrest.

PROCESS

The session featured expert speakers from Cyber Cell and Cyber Peace Corps, including Mr. Manoj Thakur (DSP Cyber Cell), Mr. Tarak Das (State Coordinator, Cyber Peace), Ms. Namita Prasad (Speaker), and Mr. Srinivas (INSP Cyber Cell) and Mr. Kunal Raja (INSP Cyber Cell). A Cyber Crime Awareness Program was conducted at DBMS College of Education on 12/02/2025 to educate students on the growing threats in cyberspace and how to safeguard themselves from cybercrimes. The following points were discussed.

- 1. Understanding Cybercrime – The experts explained different types of cybercrimes, including phishing, hacking, identity theft, financial fraud, and cyberbullying.
- 2. Cyber Arrests & Law Enforcement Actions – Inspectors Srinivas and Kunal Raja shared real-life cases where the Cyber Cell acted against cybercriminals. They highlighted how digital footprints can lead to the identification of offenders.
- 3. Importance of Data Protection – Ms. Namita Prasad focused on how personal data is exploited for financial and malicious purposes. She explained the significance of strong passwords, two-factor authentication, and avoiding suspicious links.
- 4. Role of Cyber Peace & Cyber Peace Cops – The NGO is dedicated to spreading awareness about online security and educating people about cyber hygiene worldwide.

5. Inspector Srinivas clarified that the term "cyber arrest" is a misleading concept created by cyber fraudsters to instil fear and manipulate victims into paying them. He reassured everyone that law enforcement follows legal procedures, and any legitimate action comes through proper authorities, not anonymous callers or threats.
6. Inspector Srinivas shared an inspiring case where he successfully helped a victim recover 100% of the stolen money from a cyber theft. He emphasized that quick action, reporting incidents immediately, and cooperating with the cyber cell can increase the chances of reclaiming lost money.
7. Never share OTPs, passwords, or personal details with unknown callers or websites. Verify suspicious messages or calls claiming to be from banks, government agencies, or police. Report cybercrimes immediately through the National Cyber Crime Reporting Portal or helpline (1930) Website- <https://cybercrime.gov.in>

OUTCOME

The program heightened student's awareness of cyber threats and preventive actions. It inspired a sense of digital responsibility and highlighted the role of law enforcement and NGOs in cyber safety.

CONCLUSION

The session was highly informative and interactive, helping students understand the risks associated with digital platforms. The speakers stressed that awareness and responsible online behaviour are the best defences against cyber threats. This program successfully instilled a sense of digital responsibility among the attendees.

CONTEXT

With the increasing health risks associated with cervical cancer, especially among young women, D.B.M.S. College of Education organized an awareness program to educate students and parents about prevention, early detection, and the importance of the HPV vaccination. For the awareness session we had Dr Sujata Mitra HOD MTMH.

OBJECTIVES

- To raise awareness about cervical cancer, its causes, symptoms, and preventive measures.
- To educate students and parents on the importance of HPV vaccination for long-term protection.
- To facilitate affordable vaccination by providing doses at a discounted price within the college campus.

PROCESS

An informative Cervical Cancer Awareness Program was conducted on 15th February 2025 at 9 AM at DBMS College of Education, led by Dr. Sujata Mitra. The session aimed to educate students and parents about the causes, symptoms, and preventive measures associated with cervical cancer. Dr. Mitra emphasized the critical role of the HPV vaccine in reducing the risk of infection. To promote vaccination, a center will be set up on the college premises, offering doses at a subsidized rate of ₹500—made possible through generous support from the Rotaract Club and our esteemed Chairperson, Mr. B. Chandrashekhar. Dr. Mitra patiently addressed concerns from parents regarding the vaccine's effects on the menstrual cycle, pregnancy, suitable age for administration, and potential side effects. Consent forms were distributed to interested students, and a vaccination drive will be scheduled based on responses.

OUTCOME

The program saw enthusiastic participation from both students and parents. Many availed of the discounted vaccination, reflecting increased awareness and acceptance of preventive healthcare practices. The session successfully raised awareness and promoted preventive healthcare among the college community.

CONCLUSION

The initiative was a step forward in promoting women's health and disease prevention. The college expressed gratitude to Dr. Sujata Mitra for her valuable contribution. The program successfully created a well-informed and health-conscious student community.

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

Following can be part of the information sharing with parents for HPV vaccination of girls.

'Cervical cancer is one of the most common cancers in women in India. Repeated infection with Human Papilloma Virus (HPV) can lead to cervical cancer.

HPV vaccination protects against HPV infection, and therefore, prevents cervical cancer. It provides safe, effective, and long-lasting protection. The risk of cervical cancer reduces by almost 95% after HPV vaccination.

The best age to give HPV vaccine is during early adolescence; it is recommended to give two doses six months apart for girls between 12-14 years.

For older girls and young women (15 years onwards), 3 doses are recommended at 0, 2 and 6 months. However, the efficacy of the vaccine decreases if the woman is sexually active and exposed to the infection before vaccination.'

I have rechecked the recommendation- for 2 doses, it is 0 and 6 months, for 3 doses, it is 0, 2 and 6 months. We may need to work out our schedule accordingly.

With regards, stress and finding inner peace. Drawing inspiration from mythology, Dr. Nandwani cited the example of Arjun from the Mahabharata, explaining how inner turmoil can be resolved through clarity of thought and self-awareness. He encouraged participants to silence external chaos and focus inward, using yogic principles to align their thoughts with happiness. The session left attendees feeling calm, centered, and inspired to pursue a more mindful life.

OUTCOME

- Participants gained practical tools for managing stress and emotions through yoga-based mindfulness and breathing exercises, promoting mental clarity and emotional resilience.
- The session inspired attendees to adopt a more positive and reflective outlook on life, encouraging them to integrate yogic practices into their daily routines for sustained inner peace and well-being.

CONCLUSION

The session was engaging and reflective, encouraging participants to transform negative thoughts into positive ones. It concluded with attendees feeling rejuvenated and motivated to embrace a more mindful life.

योगिक हैप्पीनेस पर सत्र आयोजित

जमशेदपुर : डीबीएमएस कॉलेज में डॉक्टर सुनील नंदवानी ने 'योगिक हैप्पीनेस' पर बीएड छात्रों और शिक्षकों के लिए एक सत्र लिया. उन्होंने कहा कि हम अक्सर खुशी के पीछे दौड़ते रहते हैं, हर बार हमारे सामने खुशी का गाजर लटका दिया जाता है, जिसे पाने के लिए हम सारी जिंदगी दौड़ते रहते हैं. कहा कि दरअसल सच्ची खुशी हमारे अंदर ही है. उन्होंने कहा कि हम अक्सर यह गलती करते हैं कि बड़ा घर, बांगला, मोटर कार, टी.वी, फ़िज से खुशी मिलेगी, लेकिन यह सब क्षणिक खुशी है. आज के इस विशेष सत्र में डीबीएमएस ट्रस्ट के चेयरपर्सन बी चंद्रशेखर, सचिव श्रीप्रिया धर्मराजन, प्राचार्य डॉ जूही समर्पिता और सभी शिक्षक उपस्थित थे. उप प्राचार्य डॉ मोनिका उपल ने अतिथियों का स्वागत किया तो धन्यवाद ज्ञापन बी.एड की छात्रा शोमिनी ने किया.
