INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY- 2025

LINGUISTIC HERITAGE: CELEBRATING THE POWER OF MOTHER LANGUAGES

DATE: 22/02/2025

VENUE: COLLEGE MULTIPURPOSE HALL

CONTEXT

International Mother Language Day is observed on 21st February every year to promote awareness of linguistic and cultural diversity and to encourage the preservation and protection of all languages spoken by people across the world. The day was proclaimed by UNESCO in 1999 in recognition of the sacrifices made during the Bengali Language Movement in Bangladesh in 1952.

To commemorate this significant occasion, the Literary Club of D.B.M.S. College of Education organized a special program focused on celebrating the richness of mother languages and raising awareness about the importance of preserving our LINGUISTIC HERITAGE. The event aimed to inspire students to appreciate their native languages, understand their cultural value, and express themselves creatively through various activities.

OBJECTIVES

1. To promote awareness about the importance of preserving and promoting mother languages.

2. To celebrate linguistic and cultural diversity as a vital part of national and global heritage.
3. To encourage students to take pride in their mother tongue and express themselves in their native languages.
4. To foster respect and understanding among students from different linguistic backgrounds.
5. To provide a platform for literary and cultural expression through speech, poetry, posters, and quiz competitions.
6. To sensitize students about the historical significance of International Mother Language Day.

PROCEDURE

- The event commenced with a formal welcome by the anchors of the event. The Chief Guest, Management, Principal, Vice Principal, faculty members and students were greeted with respect.
- The celebration began with the lighting of the lamp and a brief address by the Vice Principal Dr. Monika Uppal, highlighting the significance of Language Day and encouraging linguistic unity.
- As a token of appreciation, the esteemed Chief Guest Dr. Kalyani Kabir was honoured for gracing the occasion with her valuable presence.
- A captivating poetry presentation by Mrs. Poonam Kumari's team, where students eloquently recited poems in various regional languages, including Khortha, English, Santhali, Telugu, Rajasthani, Malayalam, Odia, Bangla, Maithili, Bhojpuri, and Nagpuri.

- B.Ed. first semester student Arpita Chakravorty delivered an insightful speech in English, highlighting the importance of preserving and promoting mother languages.
- A thematic video further reinforced the message of linguistic diversity.
- One of the major highlights of the event was a cultural performance led by Mrs. Amrita Choudhary's team on the theme "हम सब एक भाषा अनेक". This segment showcased the linguistic and cultural heritage of various Indian states, including Kashmir, Punjab, Gujarat, Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Bihar, Jharkhand, and Bengal. The performance beautifully depicted the harmony that exists within India's diverse linguistic landscape.
- The Chief Guest, Dr. Kalyani Kabir, then addressed the gathering with an inspiring speech, underlining the importance of language in preserving cultural identity and fostering inclusivity.
- The event continued with another captivating performance led by Mrs. Pamela Ghosh Dutta's team on "भाषाओं के संग जीवन के तरंग". This performance creatively illustrated the role of languages in shaping human interactions and cultural expressions.
- The program concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks delivered by Reema Roy, expressing gratitude to the organizers, faculty members, participants, and audience for their contributions in making the event a resounding success.

IMPACT & OUTCOME

The celebration of International Mother Language Day had a meaningful impact on the student community and fulfilled its intended objectives.

1. Students gained a deeper understanding of the importance of preserving mother tongues and linguistic diversity as part of cultural identity and national heritage.
2. The event encouraged the use and appreciation of multiple languages through activities like multilingual poetry and speeches, fostering pride in one's linguistic roots.
3. Participants improved their public speaking, creative expression, and presentation skills through active engagement.
4. Students from different linguistic backgrounds came together, promoting unity and respect for each other's language and culture.
5. The high level of enthusiasm and voluntary participation reflected the success of the event in engaging students across departments.
6. The program emphasized values like respect for diversity, cultural pride, and the role of language in national or international integration.
7. Feedback from students and faculty was overwhelmingly positive, with suggestions to conduct similar culturally themed programs in the future on a larger scale.

CONCLUSION

The International Mother Language Day celebration at D.B.M.S College of Education was an enriching and thought-provoking experience, reinforcing the importance of linguistic diversity and cultural preservation in today's globalized world.
