| ORGANISING CELL | : | NSS UNIT 1 |
| DATE | : | 12/05/2025 |
| VENUE | : | D.B.M.S. COLLEGE OF EDUCATION |

INTRODUCTION

Operation Sindoor was a military operation conducted by the Indian Armed Forces in response to a terrorist attack in Pahalgam, Jammu and Kashmir. The operation's name was given by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who chose "Sindoor" to symbolize the significance of protecting India's honor and citizens.

CONTEXT

These operations involve strategic planning, coordination, and execution by military personnel and may be conducted in various environments and contexts.

OBJECTIVES

- To inform students about the ongoing geopolitical situation related to Operation Sindoor, (a recent military operation between India and Pakistan).
- To educate students on emergency preparedness in case of air raids, bomb threats, or wartime disruptions.
- To demonstrate evacuation procedures and identify safe assembly points within the campus.

- To instil discipline, awareness, and a sense of civic responsibility in students during national emergencies

PROCEDURE

- The event began with highlighting the importance of safety and national awareness by NSS Program Officer.
- A short video circulated by the govt. was shown in class.
- A brief introduction was given on Operation Sindoor, its background, and its potential implications for civilians.
- Students were trained to draw the curtains, switch off the lights and hide under the desks. The students followed the instructions given by the authority.
- The students were explained what to do when the Siren goes off.
- The college safety committee marked and introduced designated assembly points for use during emergencies.
- Along with teachers, staff and support staff all were directed to run to the assembly point to protect themselves.
- A session on Do's and Don'ts during air raids or war-like situations was conducted using visuals.

OUTCOME

- Students were trained to be more aware and alert during national security threats.
- They understood evacuation steps and could locate their nearest assembly point (Ear Marked as the AIR RAID SHELTER- room number1)
- The session enhanced the overall preparedness of the campus to respond calmly and effectively to emergency situations.

CONCLUSION

In light of the recent India–Pakistan conflict under Operation Sindoor, the Emergency Awareness conducted at the college was both relevant and essential. With the increasing possibility of civilian areas being affected during such conflicts, it is imperative that students and staff are well-prepared to respond calmly and efficiently during emergency situations like air raids or evacuations. The drill strengthened the campus' overall preparedness and reaffirmed the importance of unity, discipline, and awareness in safeguarding lives during wartime emergencies. This exercise stands as a model for how academic institutions can contribute meaningfully to national resilience.
