REPORT

Title of the Programme : Performance On Play Julius Caesar
Organized By : Literary Club of D.B.M.S. College of Education
Date ; 05/07/2025
Venue : RMS High School Balichela

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT

As per the MOU signed with RMS High School Balichela, the Literary Club of D.B.M.S. College of Education organised a dramatic performance of William Shakespeare's Julius Caesar on 5th of July 2025 as part of the co- curricular and outreach initiatives at RMS High School Balichela. This initiative aimed to foster a deeper understanding of classic literature among school students while offering the B.Ed. students a valuable platform to apply their teaching and communication skills through dramatization. The performance was carried out by first semester B.Ed. students.

Students under the guidance of club moderators were involved in all stages of the program- from script preparation and casting to costume design and stage management. The event provided them with an opportunity to implement theoretical concepts of drama and literature into practice, enhancing their pedagogical and creative skills. The effort successfully met the dual objective of engaging school students in Shakespearean drama and giving the B.Ed. students experiential learning in literary expression and audience engagement.

The performance was witnessed by teachers and students of the host school, who appreciated the clarity, expression, and educational value of the play. The dramatization not only enriched the audience's understanding of classic literature but also enabled student-teachers to demonstrate their leadership and teaching competencies in a real-life setting.

OBJECTIVES

1. To promote literary awareness and appreciation among school students through dramatization of Shakespearean literature.
2. To provide experiential learning opportunities to B.Ed. students in performance-based pedagogy.
3. To enhance communication, collaboration, and creative expression among student-teachers.
4. To establish a meaningful academic linkage between the college and the school community.
5. To encourage co-curricular participation as a means of holistic teacher education.

OUTCOMES

1. B.Ed. students demonstrated improved public speaking, dramatic expression, and teamwork.
2. Participants gained hands-on experience in applying literature as a teaching-learning tool.
3. Strengthened institutional collaboration between the college and RMS High School.

4. The program reinforced the role of co-curricular activities in building 21st-century teaching skills.
5. Positive feedback received from the host school encouraged future partnerships for similar outreach initiatives.

CONCLUSION

The performance of Julius Caesar successfully integrated academic learning with practical application, fulfilling both the educational goals of the B.Ed. curriculum and the quality enhancement initiatives as guided by NEP 2020. This activity fostered a meaningful collaboration between our college and school. It provided an opportunity for pre-service teachers to engage in real world educational settings, thus bridging the gap between theory and practice. Verbal feedback collected from RMS High School Balichela faculty and students indicated high levels of satisfaction and interest in future collaborative programs.

MEDIA COVERAGE

DBMS College students stage Shakespeare's Julius Caesar

Jamshedpur, July 5: Students of Semester-1 from DBMS College of Education delivered an impressive performance of Shakespeare's renowned play Julius Caesar at R.M.S. High School, Balichela. The event was attended by students of Classes 9 and 10, who watched the performance with great enthusiasm and engagement.

A group of 20 students from DBMS College of Education brought the classic to life with remarkable energy and sincerity, portraying the depth of the characters and intensity of the dialogues with conviction. Their performance not only reflected a strong grasp of dramatic literature but also showcased their development in confidence, communication, and teamwork.

The play, rich in literary value, stood out for its stagecraft and execution, effectively capturing the essence of Shakespeare's timeless tragedy. Principal Pratima Sinha and the teaching faculty of R.M.S. High School praised the performers and appreciated the initiative for providing cultural and educational enrichment to the school students. The college's Vice Principal, Dr. Monica Uppal, and teacher, Dr. Meenakshi Chaudhary, were also present at the event and encouraged the students for their dedicated effort and impactful presentation.
