CONTEXT

The Ullas – Nav Bharat Saaksharta Karyakram is a flagship initiative of the Government of India under the New India Literacy Programme (NILP), which aims to eradicate adult illiteracy and promote foundational literacy and numeracy across all sections of society. This training was organized as per the direction of the District Education Officer and Member Secretary, District Literacy Committee, East Singhbhum.

OBJECTIVE

1. To train college representatives and NSS officers on implementing the Ullas literacy initiative.
2. To provide orientation on the operation of literacy centers, digital survey tools, and assessments like FLNAT.
3. To enhance awareness on adult education, especially for women and non-literates.

4. To equip participants to act as facilitators in promoting literacy through technology and community engagement.

PROCESS

The one-day training programme was conducted by Mr. Manoj Kumar Nirala, State-level Nodal Officer, NILP.

Highlights of Session:

1. Introduction to ULLAS App (developed by NCERT)
2. Use of DIKSHA App, Ji Guruji App, and Google Authenticator
3. Registration process using U-DISE code, mobile number, and email ID
4. Monitoring through the NILP Portal
5. Discussion on Model Jan Chetna Kendras and role of B.Ed. colleges in promoting community literacy
6. Insights by Dr. Sujay Kundu, Asst. Prof., Dept. of Social Work, Maharaja Sriram Chandra University, Odisha, on Adult Education in slum areas and vocational education

OUTCOME

1. Participants gained hands-on experience in using the digital platforms of Ullas.
2. Detailed understanding of Foundational Literacy & Numeracy (FLN) and adult education methodology was developed.
3. The role of NSS units and B.Ed. institutions in literacy mobilization was clearly outlined.
4. Prepared groundwork for future surveys, report submissions, and field implementation through NSS volunteers.
