REPORT

TITLE OF THE PROGRAMME : THEATRE IN EDUCATION
ORGANIZING CLUB : CULTURAL CLUB
DATE : 14TH AUGUST, 2025
TIME : 9:30 A.M.
VENUE : COLLEGE AUDITORIUM

CONTEXT

The Cultural Club of D.B.M.S. College of Education under IQAC organized an interactive session on Theatre in Education on 14th August at 9:30 a.m. The event was graced by the presence of Mr. Shubham Sinha, a renowned creative and short film director, recognized internationally for his works and acclaimed at the Cannes Film Festival.

OBJECTIVE

The session aimed to introduce students to the concept of using theatre as an educational tool. It sought to highlight the role of role-play, storytelling, and dramatization in enriching the teaching-learning process and in enhancing creativity, empathy, and communication among students.

PROCEDURE

The program began with a warm welcome of the resource person, followed by his engaging talk. Mr. Sinha shared insights on how theatre can become a powerful medium of learning and personal growth. He screened some of his acclaimed short films, including Purple Scarf and The Date, which gave students a deeper understanding of storytelling through visuals. The session concluded with an interactive Q&A round, where students enthusiastically asked questions about his creative journey, filmmaking process, and the application of theatre in academics.

OUTCOME

The session proved to be highly inspiring and thought-provoking. Students not only gained exposure to the creative field of theatre and short films but also understood the importance of role-play in education. The films screened provided real examples of impactful storytelling, sparking curiosity and interest among the participants.

CONCLUSION

Theatre in education is not just about performance—it is about creating experiences that teach, inspire, and connect. Mr. Shubham Sinha's session left students motivated to explore drama and storytelling as tools for self-expression and learning. The event successfully met its objective by encouraging students to appreciate the power of creativity in education.

Dear Mr. Shubham Sinha,

Greetings from D.B.M.S. College of Education!

We would be delighted to invite you as a Resource Person for our B.Ed. students. As you know, Drama and Art in Education is an important component of the B.Ed. curriculum. Being an eminent personality in the film world, your presence and guidance will truly enrich the learning experience of our future teachers.

We humbly request you to share your experiences, success story, and valuable insights on how theatre can be effectively incorporated into teaching and classroom practices.

The session is scheduled for tomorrow at 9:00 a.m. at D.B.M.S. College of Education.

We look forward to your gracious presence.

Warm regards,

Dr. Joohi Samarpita
