CONTEXT

The IQAC of D.B.M.S. College of Education organized an Interactive Talk, "Battle of the Books," on August 30, 2025, in the College library. This event was designed to foster critical thinking, argumentation, and teamwork among B.Ed. students. The theme "Uncover the Truth: The Mystery Book" was chosen to encourage students to engage with thought-provoking literature and develop their analytical skills.

OBJECTIVE

The primary objective of the event was to provide a platform for students to enhance their critical thinking, argumentation, and presentation skills. By participating in the debate, students were expected to develop a deeper understanding of complex themes and plots, articulate their thoughts and opinions effectively, and work collaboratively in teams.

PROCEDURE

The event was structured to ensure active participation and engagement from all team members. The procedure was as follows: The event commenced with the formation of teams, comprising four members each. Each team was required to choose a mystery book and divide themselves into two pairs, with one pair arguing in favor of the book and the other pair arguing against it. This format encouraged teamwork, collaboration, and diverse perspectives among team members.

Following team formation, each team presented a 1-minute synopsis of their chosen book. This concise overview provided the audience with a glimpse into the plot, themes, and key elements of the book, setting the stage for the debate.

The main event was the structured debate, where each team engaged in an 8-minute discussion, with 2 minutes showcasing their argumentation prowess. The debate format allowed students to present their arguments, counterarguments, and rebuttals, demonstrating their critical thinking and analytical skills. The teams were judged on their ability to articulate their thoughts, respond to counterarguments, and work collaboratively.

The principal's motivational speech followed the debates, emphasizing the importance of critical thinking, effective communication, and teamwork in academic and professional pursuits. The speech inspired students to continue developing these essential skills.

The event's esteemed panel of judges consisted of our Assistant Professor Dr. Meenakshi Choudhary, and student council members Ms. Eliza Samad (President) and Ms. Reema Roy (Secretary) from D.B.M.S. College of Education. The judges provided valuable feedback and insights to the participants and audience members, highlighting the strengths and areas of improvement for future events. Their feedback was invaluable in helping students understand the expectations and requirements of such events.

IMPACT AND OUTCOMES

The "Battle of the Books" event had a profound impact on the students, enhancing their critical thinking skills, improving their argumentation abilities, fostering teamwork and collaboration, and boosting their confidence and public speaking skills. By analysing complex plots and themes, students developed well-supported arguments and learned to articulate their thoughts and opinions effectively. The debate format helped students improve their argumentation skills, responding to counterarguments and presenting cohesive arguments. Through teamwork, students learned to share ideas, divide tasks, and support each other, ultimately developing a sense of camaraderie and collaboration. The event provided students with an opportunity to practice public speaking, build confidence, and develop their presentation skills, essential for their academic and professional pursuits.

CONCLUSION

The "Battle of the Books" event was a resounding success, providing a platform for students to engage with thought-provoking literature and develop essential skills. The event's outcome was a testament to the students' ability to think critically, argue effectively, and work collaboratively. The IQAC's initiative to organize such events will continue to benefit students in their academic and professional pursuits.
