- Create awareness among the students about the ill effects of ragging and preventing ragging incidents through various programs and promote a safe and respectful campus environment.

PROCESS

The process involved the following:

Day 1: Confidential Youth Survey and Feedback –

A survey was conducted to assess the students' awareness and understanding of anti-ragging policies, an online Survey form was circulated to B.Ed.1st semester and 3rd semester students via email which was shared by UGC Anti-Ragging National Monitoring Agency conducting a Confidential Youth Survey to gather feedback from students on the anti-ragging mechanisms.

- Students filled and submitted the forms to the anti-ragging cell
- The forms were reviewed and documented by the anti-ragging cell.

Day2: Awareness Videos-

Awareness videos highlighting the consequences of ragging and the importance of mutual respect were shown to students.

- Both batches of students were included in the screening to ensure widespread awareness and understanding of the issue.
- The videos provided examples of different types of ragging, emphasizing the need for a respectful and inclusive campus environment.

Day 3: Selfie Corner-

A special "Selfie Corner" was set up with anti-ragging slogans and posters.

- Students enthusiastically participated in clicking selfies to express their support for a ragging-free campus.

Advisory - Request to Encourage Student Participation in the UGC Anti-Ragging Confidential Youth Survey

C4Y - UGC National Anti-Ragging Monitoring Agency <antiragging@c4yindia.org> Thu, Aug 7, 2025 at 10:17 AM
Cc: "Alka Tomar, Chairperson, C4Y" <alka.tomar@c4yindia.org>

Dear Vice Chancellor/Principal/Director,

As part of our ongoing efforts to promote safer and more inclusive campuses, the UGC Anti-Ragging National Monitoring Agency is conducting a Confidential Youth Survey to gather feedback from students on the anti-ragging mechanisms currently in place in their respective colleges, universities, or institutions. This nationwide survey is open to all students enrolled in Higher Educational Institutions (HEIs) across India. Refer the survey link: <https://www.antiragging.in/youth-survey.php>

You are humbly requested to encourage the students of your institution to actively participate in this important initiative. Their first-hand experiences will be highly valuable in understanding on-ground realities and strengthening anti-ragging systems across the country collectively.

All responses to the survey will remain strictly confidential, and participation is completely voluntary. The survey is available at www.antiragging.in. We respectfully request you to widely disseminate this information among your student community through appropriate channels such as official emails, institutional websites, notice boards, and WhatsApp groups.

Your kind cooperation in this matter will significantly contribute to our shared objective of ensuring a safe, respectful, and supportive academic environment for all students.

With sincere appreciation for your continued commitment to student welfare and campus safety.

Warm regards,

Alka
