INTRODUCTION

The Eco Club of DBMS College organized an engaging workshop on Handmade Paper Making titled Handmade Paper Magic on 29th August at 10:30 a.m. in collaboration with the Koru Foundation. The session aimed to promote sustainable practices and encourage students to adopt eco-friendly alternatives to conventional paper.

OBJECTIVE

The key objectives of the workshop were:

- To create awareness about the importance of recycling and waste management.
- To introduce students to the process of making handmade paper using waste materials.
- To inspire creativity while promoting eco-friendly habits and reducing the use of non-recyclable products.

PROCESS

The resource team from Koru Foundation (Ms. Sadaf and Mr. Deepak) demonstrated step-by-step methods of paper recycling and sheet formation. Students were guided on how to:

- ❖ Collect and soak waste paper. (newspaper, papers from old books and copies)
- ❖ Prepare pulp through blending.
- ❖ Spread the pulp on a mesh frame to form sheets.
- ❖ Press and dry the sheets for reuse.
- ❖ Participants were also encouraged to try the process themselves, making the workshop interactive and hands-on.
- ❖ They were given home assignment to decorate the handmade paper with their creativity and submit it by 5th September.

OUTCOME

The workshop was highly successful in engaging students with the concept of sustainability. Participants not only learned the practical technique of handmade paper making but also realized how waste can be turned into a useful resource. The activity encouraged creativity, teamwork, and responsibility towards the environment.

To
Mr. Deepak Soni

Subject: Invitation to conduct a session on making handmade paper

Greetings from D.B.M.S. College of Education.

We are pleased to extend our warm invitation to the Koru foundation to conduct a workshop on handmade paper making for our B.Ed students. As future teachers, it is vital for them to explore sustainable practices, creativity and eco-friendly methods that can be integrated into classroom teaching and learning.

In light of the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) signed between our two institutions, we cordially invite your expertise and guidance in handmade paper making.

Your esteemed institution's participation will greatly enhance the students sustainable skills and environmental responsibility.
