Patriotic spirit soars at DBMS College special assembly

Jamshedpur, Nov 7: The NSS Unit 1 of DBMS College of Education, Kadma, organized a special assembly that celebrated patriotism and historical awareness among students. The event featured engaging presentations by students Reema, Rohit, Trisha, Shomani, and Elza, who shared insightful information on the historical significance of VandeMataram, interesting stories, and the contributions of Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay.

The program began with a soulful group rendition of VandeMataram, led by music teacher Amrita Chaudhari, which filled the atmosphere with patriotic fervor. Students also highlighted key events and personalities from India's history, encouraging analytical thinking and national pride.

The program outline was prepared by Program Officer PoonamKumari, while Secretary ShripriyaMadhirajan and Joint Secretary Sutra Vadlip played vital roles in organizing the event. The active support of Principal Dr.JoohiSampathi, Dr. Monica Uppal, teachers, and staff contributed to the program's success. The inspiring and educational assembly left a lasting impression on all participants. (W-mb)
