environment. The FDP aimed to encourage teachers develop leadership skills and strategies for effective classroom management.

PROCESS

Mr. Karunakar Patra delivered a keynote address on transformative learning, emphasizing the importance of embracing challenges as opportunities for growth and development. He also laid emphasis on time management and different strategies for proper classroom management.

Dr. Monika Uppal took a session on leadership skills, highlighting the importance of effective leadership skill in creating a positive learning environment. She also took three different psychological test to assess the leadership skills of different participants and identify areas for improvement.

OUTCOME

This faculty development programme, on transformative learning – turning challenges into opportunities, provided a platform for faculty members to reflect on their teaching practices and identify areas for improvement. The participants gained insights into transformative learning and leadership skills, enabling them to create a positive learning environment. The psychological tests helped participants identify their strengths and weaknesses, enabling them to develop strategies for improvement

CONCLUSION

The Faculty Development Program was a resounding success, providing faculty members with valuable insights and skills to transform challenges into opportunities. The program emphasized the importance of leadership skills and transformative learning in creating a positive learning environment.

DBMS College hosts FDP on transformative learning

Teachers from multiple institutions participate in professional development programme

Mail News Service

Jamshedpur, Jan 31: DBMS College of Education successfully organized a one-day Faculty Development Programme (FDP) aimed at enhancing teachers' professional skills and encouraging innovative and reflective teaching practices. The programme brought together faculty members from various educational institutions across the city and nearby regions.

The chief resource person for the event was Dr. Kumarakar Patra from Roukela Institute of Management Studies, who conducted an engaging and informative session on "Transformative Learning." He discussed different approaches to make teaching more impactful and learner-centered, emphasizing the role of teachers in shaping meaningful educational experiences.

Faculty members from the Departments of Education and MBA of Jamshedpur Women's University, Shri Mata University, and Arka Jain University participated actively. Teachers from Javirukant B.Ed. College, Karim City College, and DBMS College of Education, along with alumni of DBMS College, also attended and benefited from the sessions.

The programme was conducted by Mousumi Dutta, Assistant Professor, DBMS College of Education. In her welcome address, Principal Dr. Jooni Samarpita highlighted the importance of continuous learning for teachers, stating that when educators grow, the entire education system becomes stronger.

Vice-Principal Dr. Morika Uppal delivered a session on leadership, while Dr. Surina Bhullar, Dr. Meenakshi Choudhary, Gayatri, Poojani, and Anrita shared their insights. Assistant Professor Archana Kumari served as the Programme Coordinator.

The event was supported by a technical team led by Sudip Pramanik, along with Birendra Pandey, Julian Anthony, and Abhijeet De. The programme was attended by Chairperson B. Chandrasekhar and other members of the governing body. Certificates were distributed to all participants at the conclusion of the FDP. (W-rib)
