DATE	: 21ST, DECEMBER 2025
VENUE	: KARIM CITY COLLEGE, SAKCHI, JAMSHEDPUR
TIME	: 11.00 A.M ONWARDS

CONTEXT

On behalf of D.B.M.S. College of Education, the Cultural Club actively participated in the Prem Chand–Sharat Chandra Memorial Program 25, an annual cultural and literary event organized by The Society for Promotion of Art and Culture (SPARC), Karim City College, Jamshedpur, in collaboration with the Progressive Cultural Association of India. This prestigious programme is conducted every year with the objective of celebrating creativity, culture, literature, and patriotism, while commemorating the enduring literary contributions of Munshi Prem Chand and Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay. The event provides a vibrant inter-institutional platform that encourages students to engage in diverse literary and performing art activities. The participation of the Cultural Club of D.B.M.S. College of Education offered student-teachers a valuable opportunity to showcase their artistic talents, cultural sensibilities, and literary awareness, thereby contributing meaningfully to the objectives of the programme.

OBJECTIVES

The main objectives of participation were:

- To provide student-teachers a platform to express their creative and artistic abilities.
- To promote Indian cultural values, literature, and performing arts among students.

- To encourage participation in inter-collegiate cultural and literary activities.
- To develop confidence, teamwork, and stage presence among students.
- To honour and understand the literary legacy of Prem Chand and Sharat Chandra.

PARTICIPATION

Students of D.B.M.S. College of Education participated enthusiastically in both phases of the Prem Chand–Sharat Chandra Memorial Program – 2025. In the First Phase (Preliminary Round), student-teachers actively took part in singing, dance, and drama competitions, displaying confidence, artistic expression, and stage discipline. In the Second Phase, students further showcased their academic and creative abilities by participating in a wide range of events, including essay writing, drawing, general knowledge, speech, poetry recitation, singing, and dance competitions. The participants demonstrated a commendable level of dedication, discipline, creativity, and cultural awareness, reflecting the strong cultural and holistic foundation nurtured by the institution.

PROCEDURE

Upon receiving the official invitation and brochure from the organizing committee of the programme, the Cultural Club of D.B.M.S. College of Education held internal discussions to identify interested and talented student-teachers. Suitable participants were selected for various events, including Akal Geet, Niband (Essay Writing), Samanyagayan, Group Dance, and Painting, and systematic rehearsals and preparations were conducted under proper guidance. The institution was represented by Tanushree Saha (Akal Geet), Rupa Kumari (Niband), Surbhi Kumari and Kajal Kumari (Samanyagayan), Eliza Samad, Shoumini Das, Shristy Kumari, Trisha Sarkar, and Spriha (Group Dance), and Priya Bopai (Painting). Students completed the registration process through the QR code provided in the brochure. Necessary permissions were obtained from the college administration, and participants were thoroughly briefed about the rules, themes, timing, and code of conduct of the competitions.

On the scheduled dates, students reported to the venue at Karim City College, Sakchi, Jamshedpur, well in time and participated in their respective events with enthusiasm, confidence, discipline, and a spirit of healthy competition.

OUTCOME

Participation in the Prem Chand–Sharat Chandra Memorial Program – 2025 proved to be a highly enriching and meaningful learning experience for the students of D.B.M.S. College of Education. The programme significantly enhanced students' creative expression, communication skills, cultural awareness, and self-confidence through active involvement in literary and performing art activities. The event provided valuable exposure to inter-collegiate competition, enabling students to interact with peers from different institutions and gain broader cultural perspectives. Through participation in diverse events, students developed a deeper understanding of discipline, teamwork, time management, and stage etiquette, which are essential qualities for their personal and professional growth. Engagement in activities inspired by the works and ideals of Munshi Prem Chand and Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay helped students appreciate Indian literature, social values, patriotism, and ethical consciousness. The programme also nurtured leadership qualities and decision-making abilities among student-teachers by encouraging responsibility and collaborative participation. Overall, the programme strengthened the cultural identity and creative environment of the institution and motivated students to actively participate in future cultural, literary, and co-curricular activities, thereby contributing to their holistic development.

CONCLUSION

The participation of the Cultural Club of D.B.M.S. College of Education in the Prem Chand–Sharat Chandra Memorial Program – 2025 proved to be highly enriching, purposeful, and successful. Such programmes play a vital role in holistic teacher education by effectively integrating art, culture, literature, and human values with academic learning. The event provided student-teachers with meaningful opportunities to develop confidence, creativity, communication skills, and social sensitivity, which are essential attributes of effective educators. Exposure to inter-institutional platforms encouraged students to embrace diversity, cultural appreciation, and collaborative learning, thereby broadening their overall outlook. The institution expresses its sincere appreciation to the organizers for offering a well-organized and inspiring platform that promotes literary awareness, cultural exchange, and patriotic values. The college looks forward to continued

Premchand-Sharatchand Smriti Samharok concludes at KCC

Jamshedpur, January 11:

The closing ceremony of the Premchand-Sharatchand Smriti Samharok, jointly organised by PCAI and SPARC, was held with enthusiasm at the auditorium of Karim City College on Sunday. The programme celebrated literature, culture and patriotism, and saw participation from students, artists and social leaders.

The event was anchored by Aporva and Khusbu, who conducted the programme smoothly and kept the audience engaged throughout the evening. The ceremony began with a welcome address by Ajay Roy, who explained the objectives of the Smriti Samharok and underlined the continued relevance of the literary contributions of Premchand and Sharatchand in the present day. The cultural segment opened with two patriotic songs performed by the winners of the programme, filling the auditorium with a sense of national pride. This was followed by a group song that added to the cultural atmosphere of the evening. A group dance performance by students of D.B.M.S. College of Education received warm applause for its coordination and creativity. The audience was further entertained by two energetic dance performances by Shivam and Shalini, which stood out for their rhythm and expressive presentation. Several distinguished guests were present at the ceremony, including Bhagwan Singh, Chairman of CGP; social worker

Bunty Singh; noted Santhali poetess JobaMurmū; social activist PurbiGhosh; and Dr B. N. Prashad, Head of the Faculty of Science at Kolhan University. Addressing the gathering, the guests appreciated the initiative and encouraged young people to take an active interest in cultural and literary activities.
