INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY

LINGUISTIC HERITAGE: CELEBRATING THE POWER OF MOTHER LANGUAGES

DATE: 22/02/2025

VENUE: COLLEGE MULTIPURPOSE HALL

ABOUT EVENT

International Mother Language Day is observed on 21st February every year to promote awareness of linguistic and cultural diversity and to encourage the preservation and protection of all languages spoken by people across the world. The day was proclaimed by UNESCO in 1999 in recognition of the sacrifices made during the Bengali Language Movement in Bangladesh in 1952. To commemorate this significant occasion, the Literary Club of D.B.M.S. College of Education organized a special program focused on celebrating the richness of mother languages and raising awareness about the importance of preserving our LINGUISTIC HERITAGE. The event aimed to inspire students to appreciate their native languages, understand their cultural value, and express themselves creatively through various activities.

NURTURING LINGUISTIC HERITAGE AND ACADEMIC UNITY”

DATE: 13/09/2025

TIME: 9:00 AM

ABOUT EVENT

Hindi Diwas was celebrated with great enthusiasm at D.B.M.S. College of Education on 13th September 2025 to mark the importance and pride of the Hindi language. The event was organized by the Literary Club of the college to promote the use and respect of Hindi as the national language and to create awareness about its significance in our daily lives. This day is celebrated annually on 14th September as Hindi Diwas to commemorate the adoption of Hindi as one of the official languages of India. The celebration helped students understand the value of Hindi as a language of expression and unity. It encouraged active participation, creative expression, and respect for the linguistic heritage of India. A special highlight of the celebration was the presence of Shri Dinkar Sharma, a renowned theatre artist, who graced the occasion with his captivating performance and inspiring words on the power of language and art in education. His performance left the audience deeply moved and inspired.

PERFORMANCE ON PLAY JULIUS CAESAR

DATE: 05/07/2025

VENUE: RMS HIGH SCHOOL BALICHELA

ABOUT EVENT

As part of the co- curricular and outreach initiatives the Literary Club of D.B.M.S. College of Education organised a dramatic performance of William Shakespeare's Julius Caesar on 5th of July 2025 at RMS High School Balichela. This initiative aimed to foster a deeper understanding of classic literature among school students while offering the B.Ed. students a valuable platform to apply their teaching and communication skills through dramatization. The performance was carried out by first semester B.Ed. students. The event provided them with an opportunity to implement theoretical concepts of drama and literature into practice, enhancing their pedagogical and creative skills. The effort successfully met the dual objective of engaging school students in Shakespearean drama and giving the B.Ed. students experiential learning in literary expression and audience engagement.

VISIT TO WATCH THE PLAY ROMEO AND JULIET

DATE: 11TH NOVEMBER 2025

VENUE: XLRI, JAMSHEDPUR

PARTICIPANTS: B.ED. ENGLISH METHOD STUDENTS

ACCOMPANIED BY: DR. MEENAKSHI CHOUDHARY

An educational visit was organized for the B.Ed. English Method students to watch the stage play Romeo and Juliet at Carmel Junior College on 11 November. The visit was planned with the objective of enhancing students' understanding of English literature through live theatrical performance and to help them experience dramatic techniques beyond textbook learning. The play, based on William Shakespeare's famous tragedy Romeo and Juliet, was presented with effective dialogue delivery, expressive acting, and appropriate stage settings. The students observed various dramatic elements such as character portrayal, voice modulation, body language, costumes, and stage direction. This exposure helped them understand how drama can be used as an effective teaching tool in English classrooms to make literature more engaging and meaningful for learners. Overall, the educational visit was a fruitful learning experience and contributed significantly to the academic and professional development of the English Method students.
