Creative Exhibits and Cultural Performances: The program began with an impressive model presentation where students creatively displayed the characteristics and cultural backgrounds of various Indian languages. This educational showcase allowed visitors to explore the unique significance of linguistic diversity. Following the exhibition, first-semester students performed a graceful welcome dance that set an enthusiastic tone for the afternoon.

Vice Principal Dr. Monica Uppal delivered an inspiring address, emphasizing the urgent need for linguistic preservation and cultural conservation. She highlighted how a mother tongue defines an individual's identity and heritage. The college further enriched the experience with a brief video presentation that explored various global languages and their histories.

A Musical Journey Through India's Heart: The cultural segment reached its peak with a stirring group song led by faculty member Mrs. Amrita Chaudhary and her team. This was followed by a series of vibrant dance performances representing India's diverse mother tongues. The event also featured international cultural dances, sending a powerful message of global unity and the concept of "Unity in Diversity." Under the expert supervision of Dr. Meenakshi Chaudhary, the students executed every performance with precision and artistic flair.

Competition remained high during the model exhibition. The Odia language group secured the first prize for their detailed presentation, while the Santhali language group and Gurmukhi language group earned second and third places, respectively. The college recognized these outstanding efforts during a formal award ceremony at the conclusion of the event.
