INTRODUCTION

Youth Day is celebrated every year on 12th January to commemorate the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, one of India's greatest spiritual leaders and youth icons. To mark this auspicious occasion, a Special Assembly was organized at D.B.M.S. College of Education through the joint collaboration of NSS Unit-1 and the Social Science Club. The assembly aimed to inspire young minds by highlighting the life, philosophy, education, and teachings of Swami Vivekananda.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of organizing the special assembly were:

- To celebrate National Youth Day 2026 with a sense of purpose and inspiration
- To familiarize students with the life and teachings of Swami Vivekananda
- To motivate youth to develop self-confidence, discipline, and moral values
- To promote national pride, leadership, and social responsibility
- To encourage active participation of B.Ed. Semester I students

PROCESS / PROGRAMME DETAILS

The special assembly was conducted in a well-organized and disciplined manner.

- The programme began with a thought-provoking message based on Swami Vivekananda's teachings.

- B.Ed. Semester I students delivered meaningful speeches on Swami Vivekananda's life, educational philosophy, vision for youth, and spiritual thoughts.
- The Principal, Dr. Joohi Samarpita, addressed the gathering and emphasized the need to adopt Swami Vivekananda's ideals in everyday life.
- The Vice-Principal, Dr. Monika Uppal, highlighted the importance of following the path shown by Swami Vivekananda to build a strong, ethical, and progressive society.
- The programme was successfully coordinated with the active support of Secretary Mrs. Priya Dharmarajan and Joint Secretary Mrs. Sudha Dilip.
- Teaching staff, non-teaching staff, and students participated enthusiastically in large numbers.

IMPACT

The special assembly created a deep and positive impact on the students:

- Students felt motivated and inspired by Swami Vivekananda's powerful message for youth
- It strengthened values such as self-belief, service, discipline, and nationalism
- The programme encouraged students to reflect on their role as responsible citizens and future teachers
- It promoted unity, collaboration, and leadership among students

CONCLUSION

The Special Assembly on the occasion of Swami Vivekananda Jayanti was a meaningful and inspiring initiative. It successfully conveyed Swami Vivekananda's message of strength, character, and service to humanity. The programme reinforced the idea that today's youth are the architects of tomorrow's nation, and by following Vivekananda's ideals, they can contribute towards building a strong and value-based society.

Jamshedpur, Jan 12: A special assembly was organised at D.B.M.S. College of Education on the occasion of Swami Vivekananda Jayanti, highlighting the teachings and ideals of the great spiritual leader and youth icon. The programme was jointly organised by NSS Unit 1 and the Social Science Club.

Students of the B.Ed. first semester actively participated in the assembly and presented thoughtful speeches on Swami Vivekananda's life, philosophy, teachings and vision for the youth. Through their presentations, the students emphasised values such as self-confidence, moral strength, discipline and service to society, inspiring the audience to follow Swamiji's ideals. Addressing the gathering, Principal Dr

JoohiSamarpita urged students to imbibe Swami Vivekananda's principles in their daily lives and strive for personal and social development. Vice-Principal Dr Monika Uppal, in her address, said that a strong and ethical society can be built only by following the path shown by Swami Vivekananda.

The successful organisation of the programme was supported by

Secretary SripriyaDharmarajan and Joint Secretary SudhaDileep, who played an active role in coordinating the event. A large number of teachers, non-teaching staff and students were present at the assembly. The programme concluded on an inspiring note, reinforcing the relevance of Swami Vivekananda's message in today's society. (W-mb)
