ORGANIZED BY	: DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, KARIM CITY COLLEGE
PARTICIPANTS FROM D.B.M.S. COLLEGE OF EDUCATION	: DR. MEENAKSHI CHOUDHARY – ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ARCHANA KUMARI – ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

INTRODUCTION

Faculty members from D.B.M.S. College of Education actively participated in the Two-day Inter Disciplinary National Seminar held at Karim City College, Jamshedpur. The seminar provided a platform for academicians, researchers, and teacher educators to deliberate on emerging issues in higher education, quality enhancement, inclusivity, and value integration in light of the National Education Policy 2020. The event witnessed participation from various colleges and universities across Jharkhand and neighbouring states.

OBJECTIVES

- To discuss quality concerns and accreditation mechanisms in higher education.
- To explore inclusive pedagogical practices for diverse learners.

- To examine the role of higher education institutions in value construction under NEP 2020.
- To share research findings and innovative practices for academic excellence.

PROCEEDINGS AND PRESENTATIONS BY D.B.M.S. FACULTY

Assistant Professors from D.B.M.S. College of Education presented papers in different technical sessions and contributed significantly to the academic discourse.

1. Paper Title: Quality Concerns in Higher Education and the Role of I.Q.A.C.

Presenter: Dr. Meenakshi Choudhary, Assistant Professor

This presentation addressed growing concerns regarding academic standards, employability gaps, and institutional accountability in higher education. It elaborated on the functions of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in institutionalizing best practices, promoting research culture, documentation, and continuous improvement. The paper linked IQAC initiatives with NAAC accreditation and NEP 2020's mandate for quality enhancement.

2. Paper Title: उच्च शिक्षा में मूल्यों के निर्माण में शिक्षण संस्थानों की भूमिका: राष्ट्रीय शिक्षा नीति 2020 के परिपेक्ष्य में

Presenter: Archana Kumari, Assistant Professor

The paper analyzed the crisis of value erosion in modern society and highlighted NEP 2020's emphasis on value-based education. It discussed how higher education institutions can integrate Indian Knowledge Systems, multidisciplinary curricula, and service-learning to develop ethical, compassionate, and responsible citizens. The role of teachers as value carriers and the need for value-integrated teacher education were key highlights.

OUTCOMES

The seminar facilitated academic exchange on NEP 2020 implementation challenges and opportunities. D.B.M.S. faculty gained insights into quality benchmarks, inclusive strategies, and value education models practiced by other institutions. Networking with peers opened avenues for future collaborative research and faculty development programs. The presentations received appreciation from the chair and delegates for their relevance and practical orientation.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Value Education is Central: NEP 2020 positions values at the core of higher education; institutions must redesign curricula and teacher training accordingly.
- IQAC as Change Agent: Quality sustenance requires active IQAC involvement in planning, monitoring, and stakeholder feedback.
- Inclusion is Pedagogical: Inclusive practices are not add-ons but integral to teaching-learning design in diverse classrooms.
- Faculty Role Critical: Teacher educators must model values, quality consciousness, and inclusive attitudes to prepare future teachers.
- The participation enriched professional perspectives of the faculty and will contribute to strengthening academic and administrative practices at D.B.M.S. College of Education in alignment with NEP 2020 and NAAC expectations.
