ORGANISED BY IQAC OF D.B.M.S. COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

DATE : 12TH AUGUST 2026

VENUE : B.ED. CLASSROOM 1

NO. OF PARTICIPANTS : 61 STUDENTS

INTRODUCTION

National Librarian's Day was celebrated on 12th August 2026 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, the Father of Library Science. Dr. Ranganathan's contribution to library science and his vision of making knowledge accessible to all continue to inspire librarians and readers across the world.

To honour his legacy and to promote the habit of reading among students, the IQAC of D.B.M.S. College of Education organized a creative event titled "PAGE PALS: A Bookmark for Every Story" Competition. The event aimed to blend literature, art, and innovation, encouraging students to express their love for books in a tangible and artistic form.

OBJECTIVES

The primary objectives of the competition were:

- To commemorate the contributions of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan to the field of Library Science.
- To inculcate and promote reading habits among students.
- To provide a platform for students to showcase their creativity and artistic skills.

- To emphasize the importance of libraries as centers of knowledge and learning.
- To foster innovation and self-expression through the medium of bookmarks.

PROCEDURE

The competition was conducted within the college library premises.

- PARTICIPATION: A total of 61 students from various departments enthusiastically registered and participated in the event.
- TIME LIMIT: Each participant was given 1 hour to design and create their bookmark.
- MATERIALS: Students were encouraged to use their own creativity and materials to make unique and innovative bookmarks. Themes related to books, reading, and Dr. Ranganathan were encouraged.
- JUDGING: After the completion of the activity, all bookmarks were evaluated based on criteria of creativity, originality, neatness, relevance to the theme, and overall presentation.
- RECOGNITION: The top 10 best bookmarks were selected. All participants were awarded certificates of participation to acknowledge their effort and enthusiasm.

IMPACT

The event had a significant impact on the student community. It created awareness about the importance of National Librarian's Day and the legacy of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan. The competition provided students with an opportunity to step away from digital screens and engage in a hands-on creative activity. It also strengthened the connection between students and the college library, positioning it as a vibrant space for learning beyond textbooks.

OUTCOME

The outcome of the event was highly encouraging.

- 61 bookmarks of diverse themes, designs, and messages were created, reflecting the imagination of the students.
- The competition successfully generated excitement about reading and library resources.
- The top 10 winners were recognized for their exceptional work, motivating other students to participate in future literary and creative activities.
- Certificates distributed to all participants served as appreciation for their involvement and efforts.

CONCLUSION

The celebration of National Librarian's Day through the "PAGE PALS: A Bookmark for Every Story" Competition was a grand success. The event effectively honored Dr. S. R. Ranganathan while nurturing creativity and promoting the culture of reading among students. The enthusiastic participation of 61 students and the quality of work produced reaffirmed that small initiatives can make a big difference in building a reading culture.

DBMS College celebrates National Library Day

Mail News Service

Jamshedpur, Aug 12: DBMS College of Education celebrated National Library Day with enthusiasm by organizing a bookmark-making competition themed "Page Pals - A Bookmark for Every Story." The programme aimed to promote reading habits, creativity and awareness about the importance of libraries among students. Participants displayed their imagination and artistic skills by creating colourful, innovative and attractive bookmarks. Students were also introduced to the life and contributions of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan, widely regarded as the Father of Library Science in India. The session highlighted his significant role in developing library science and promoting a culture of reading and knowledge. The college expressed gratitude to Secretary Sripriya Dharmarajan, Joint Secretary Sudha Dilip, Principal Dr. Monica Uppal and Mentor-Advisor Dr. Juhi Samarpita for their continued support and encouragement. Special appreciation was extended to librarians Kajal Mahato and Angel Munda for their efforts in organizing the programme. The teaching and non-teaching staff were also thanked for their cooperation. The enthusiastic participation of students made the bookmark competition a memorable part of the celebration. The event encouraged students to appreciate books and libraries while developing creativity and innovative thinking. The college said it remained committed to fostering knowledge, creativity, reading habits and a spirit of lifelong learning among its students.
