TITLE OF THE EVENT	: ONE DAY NATIONAL LEVEL FACULTY EXCHANGE PROGRAMME
TOPIC OF THE EVENT	: INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM
RESOURCE PERSON	: MRS. PAMELA GHOSE DUTTA & MRS. POONAM KUMARI
DATE	: 12TH DEC 2025

INTRODUCTION

A One Day National Level Faculty Exchange Programme on Indian Knowledge System was successfully organized by the IQAC, NAAMI College on 12th December 2025. The programme aimed at promoting academic collaboration, exchange of ideas, and enrichment of teaching-learning practices among faculty members. The event witnessed the participation of experienced academicians and resource persons who shared valuable insights on the relevance of Indian Knowledge Systems in contemporary education.

OBJECTIVES

The main objectives of the programme were:

- To promote awareness and understanding of the Indian Knowledge System among faculty members.
- To encourage academic collaboration through faculty exchange.
- To integrate traditional Indian knowledge with modern pedagogical practices.
- To enhance professional development of teachers through expert interaction.

PROCESS

The programme was organized under the guidance of IQAC, NAAMI College. The session began with a welcome address highlighting the significance of Indian Knowledge Systems. The resource persons for the programme were Dr. Dilip Mangaraj (IQAC Guide, BBSR), Mrs. Pamela Ghose Dutta (Assistant Professor, B.Ed., DBMS College), and Mrs. Poonam Kumari (Assistant Professor, DBMS College).

The speakers delivered insightful lectures focusing on the philosophical, cultural, and educational dimensions of Indian Knowledge Systems. Interactive discussions and question-answer sessions enriched the programme and encouraged active participation among faculty members.

IMPACT

The programme had a positive impact on the participants. Faculty members gained deeper insights into the importance of integrating Indian Knowledge Systems in higher education. The interaction fostered academic bonding, enhanced subject understanding, and motivated teachers to adopt culturally rooted approaches in teaching. It also strengthened inter-institutional collaboration.

OUTCOME

- Enhanced awareness about Indian Knowledge Systems among faculty members.
- Improved academic interaction and exchange of best practices.
- Motivation among teachers to incorporate indigenous knowledge in curriculum and pedagogy.
- Strengthened professional relationships between participating institutions.

CONCLUSION

The One Day Faculty Exchange Programme proved to be meaningful and enriching. It successfully met its objectives and contributed towards academic excellence and cultural awareness, making it a valuable initiative by IQAC, NAAMI College.
