FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM	: QUALITY EDUCATION FOR VIKSIT BHARAT @ 2047
ORGANIZED BY	; RAMBHA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
DATE	: 23RD DECEMBER 2025
NO. OF PARTICIPANTS	: 3

INTRODUCTION

Three faculty members of D.B.M.S. College of Education, namely Ms. Mousumi Dutta, Ms. Archana Kumari, and Dr. Surina Bhullar, participated in a one-day National Seminar titled “Quality Education for Viksit Bharat @2047: Empowered Educators, Empathetic Students and Enriching Communities”. The seminar was organised by Rambha College of Education and was conducted in hybrid mode. The programme focused on the role of quality education and educators in achieving the vision of Viksit Bharat by 2047. A large number of teachers, research scholars, and academicians from various institutions participated in the seminar.

OBJECTIVES

The main objectives of the seminar were to discuss the role of educators in nation-building, promote quality education aligned with the vision of Viksit Bharat @2047, explore Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) in education, and encourage academic research and scholarly discussions on contemporary educational issues.

PROCESS

Participants were required to register online through a Google Form by paying a registration fee of ₹400. Submission of abstracts was mandatory before 17th December.

The Chief Guest, Dr. Deevendra Nath Tiwari, Head of the Department of Philosophy, Banaras Hindu University (BHU), delivered an intellectually enriching address focusing on the relevance of Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) in contemporary education. He emphasised that India's traditional philosophical, ethical, and educational practices hold immense potential in shaping a value-based, inclusive, and sustainable model of development. Dr. Tiwari highlighted how integrating IKS with modern education can nurture critical thinking, moral values, and cultural rootedness among learners, thereby contributing meaningfully to the vision of Viksit Bharat @2047.

The Keynote Speaker, Dr. Prasoon Dutta Singh, Head of the Department of Sanskrit, Mahatma Gandhi Central University, Bihar, highlighted the importance of quality education grounded in Indian ethos. He stressed that education must not only focus on skill development but also on character building, empathy, and ethical responsibility. His address underscored the role of language, culture, and traditional wisdom in developing socially responsible and emotionally balanced individuals.

Among the distinguished speakers, Dr. Shreyashi Paltasingh, Principal, Gopal Chandra Memorial College of Education, Kolkata, presented insightful views on practical pathways towards achieving Viksit Bharat. She discussed the need for empowered educators, inclusive classrooms, innovation-driven pedagogy, and strong community engagement.

Dr. Ashok Avichal, Principal, LBSM College, and Dr. Deepanjay Srivastava, HOD, Philosophy, LBSM College, further enriched the seminar through their scholarly perspectives on educational leadership, philosophical foundations of education, and the evolving responsibilities of teachers in a rapidly changing society.

Participation and Paper Presentations

Dr. Surina Bhullar presented a paper titled “Equipping Teachers with Digital Literacy and Emotional Intelligence as Catalysts for a Developed India.” Her paper emphasised the dual responsibility of teachers in the digital age—being technologically competent while also emotionally sensitive. She highlighted how digital literacy enables teachers to adopt innovative teaching practices, while emotional intelligence helps in nurturing empathetic, resilient, and socially responsible learners. The paper strongly positioned teachers as catalysts for national development in the journey towards Viksit Bharat @2047.

Ms. Archana Kumari presented a paper on “Role of Teachers in the Development of Viksit Bharat.” Her presentation focused on teachers as nation-builders who shape the intellectual, moral, and social foundations of society. She discussed the role of teachers in promoting values such as discipline, inclusivity, creativity, and citizenship among students. The paper highlighted how committed and empowered educators can significantly contribute to achieving the goals of a developed India.

Ms. Mousumi Dutta presented a paper titled “A Study on Viksit Bharat @2047 and Its Efforts to Strengthen Education for All Children.” Her study examined various government initiatives and policy efforts aimed at improving access, equity, and quality in education. The paper highlighted the importance of inclusive education, foundational learning, teacher empowerment, and skill development in ensuring that every child becomes an active participant in India’s development journey. The presentation clearly linked educational reforms with the long-term national vision of Viksit Bharat @2047.
